11. [REDACTED] JGO) Met with Bob Michaels, House Appropriations Committee staff, and received from him a number of documents and notes relating to the Agency budget. These are items furnished to the Chairman over a period of 1956 through 1961. They will be forwarded to OPPB for such disposition as they deem appropriate.

Michaels advised the Chairman had signed the Agency letter before noon and forwarded it to the Senate. It was also noted that it has not been possible yet to determine a time for a meeting next week for the CIA Subcommittee.
